Inspiring Progress

Building Agility and Resilience
Through Focussed Leadership

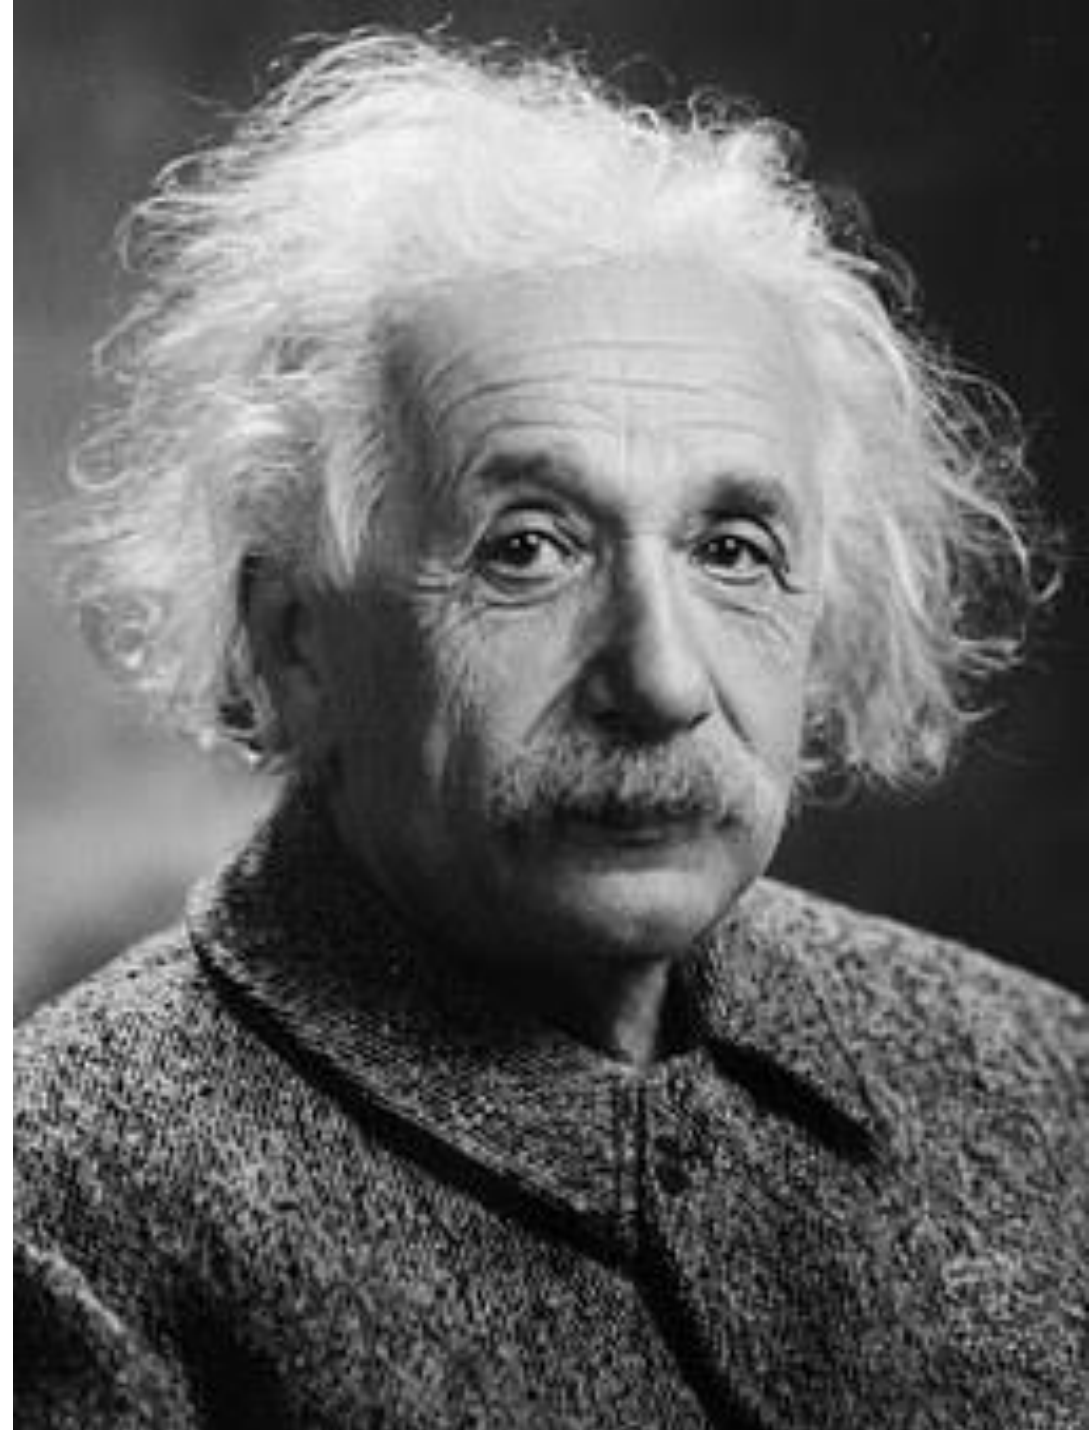

A grayscale photograph of a person's hand pointing at a tablet. The tablet screen shows a bar chart with several vertical bars of varying heights. The background is a blurred office setting.

Digitalisation, automation and the development of the ‘gig’ economy are determining the way people live and work

NESA:

- Advocates for best practice and relevant investment in service delivery for providers, job seekers, employers and community
- Provides detailed policy and program advice and recommendations to Government and stakeholders
- Represents members' views through extensive consultation and co-ordination
- Strengthens the skills within the sector through professional development
- Delivers capacity development opportunities to ensure that service quality, leadership and operational effectiveness underpins vibrant and sustainable employment services
- Works to achieve positive recognition of the sector

‘A new type of thinking is essential if mankind is to survive and move toward higher levels.’

Significant times in history when the world of work changed dramatically

- Industrial Revolution
- Great Depression
- Post War
- Decline in Australian Agriculture
